Dear Friend,

Holistic Science Journal needs your help!

Since 2010, we have explored the deepest questions of holistic science, from our first issue, First Light, through to our current recent issue, Parallel Time.

HSJ's heritage is rich and our future can be bright. It is the only independent Journal covering topics of Holistic Science in the world. Its articles come out of the work of holistic science students, teachers and practitioners who would otherwise not have a platform to publish their deepest explorations and work.

It comes to everyone at a very affordable price for 4 issues as compared to most scientific journals that charge at a minimum of ten times the price. Yet the Journal faces great challenges.

We need your immediate support to carry on and grow. We are a non-profit, community-based enterprise, and we have no endowment. We rely on the generosity of readers like you in order to publish each issue. It is only with your help that we can provide a meeting place for scientific and spiritual seekers everywhere, and to bring you future issues including the next one on Pilgrimage and Living Process.

Will you please help us by making a meaningful donation?

You may give online at holisticsciencejournal.co.uk, or "Donate" at <http://earthlinksall.com>

And please feel free to get in touch with us to discuss your gift, or any aspect of HSJ, at info@holisticsciencejournal.co.uk or by telephone at 0044-7910201155.

Please know that a gift of any size will be very much appreciated. We thank you for your support.
