

Curve Language
Gaia Series

Heartbeat
'In the beginning there was a heartbeat'

Bifurcation
'The beat bifurcated, dancing rhythms of irregularity'

Turbulence
'Bounding and flowing with turbulence and complexity'

Emergence
'Feeling its way towards coherence and form'

Gaia

'Until Gaia, Mother Earth, was born.'

Elements

Ambiguity

Beginnings

Curved Language Drawings.

Laura Batson is presently pursuing her diploma in Naturopathic Medicine at the Canadian College of Naturopathic Medicine. Laura received her Master's degree in Holistic Science from Schumacher College in 2007. In her dissertation, 'A holistic comparison of creativity in science and art', Laura discovered common patterns and organizing principles between the process of art-making and the process of morphogenesis (biological development), suggesting that a common creative process is at play within the formations of mind and body.
curve.language@gmail.com

